

What keeps hope alive when everything is lost?

A reflective Quran edition inspired by Palestinian resilience.

A source of strength.
A guide for life.

Amid loss and uncertainty, Palestinians continue to turn to the Quran, pray, and place their trust in Allah. Their resilience invites us to reflect on the role of faith in our own lives.

This edition brings together Quranic reflection, the story of Palestine, and lessons of patience, courage, and hope for everyday life.

For families, communities, foundations, NGOs, and businesses seeking to help more people live with the Quran.

Four pathways to deeper reflection.

From understanding its verses to bringing their guidance into everyday life.

01 Verses They Live By

Guidance through loss, fear, grief, and uncertainty. Themes of patience, trust in Allah, and hope.

02 Verses That Sustain Resilience

The steadfastness, courage, and willingness to sacrifice nurtured by the words of Allah.

03 Palestine in the Quran

Bayt al-Maqdis, the Holy Land, and stories of the prophets through the Quran.

04 From Palestine to Our Lives

Lessons from Palestinian resilience brought into our own journey of faith.

Three perspectives. One journey.

Ustadz Edgar Hamas — Author, Islamic speaker, and founder of Gen Saladin.

Ustadz Amar Ar-Risalah — Islamic speaker, author, and humanitarian advocate.

Ustadz Dr. Umar Makka, Lc., M.Pd.I. — Islamic speaker and teacher engaged in education and awareness of Al-Aqsa and Palestine.

Produced by Syaamil Quran. For over 20 years, publishing Qurans and selected books that inspire faith and goodness.

One Quran. A wider circle of good.

Choose a program that fits your organization and the communities you hope to reach.

Quran waqf — Distribute copies to mosques, Islamic boarding schools, families, and communities in need.

CSR & donations — Include Quran distribution in corporate social and faith-based initiatives.

Community programs — Encourage reading, understanding, and living by the Quran together.

Joint campaigns — Work toward a shared goal, such as 1,000 Qurans for 1,000 Families.
